

LIGHTNING TALKS

Monday, February 29, 2015 | 12:00 – 1:30 PM
Multipurpose Room, Student Resource Building (SRB)

TOMMY DICKEY

Professor, Department of Geography
“The Iditarod: 1000 Mile Alaskan Test of Courageous Dogs and Musers”

WILLIAM F. YIM

Independent Aviation Consultant
“Coast Redwoods in California”

SUSAN CASSELS

Assistant Professor, Department of Geography
“Syphilis, Circuit Parties, and Circular Migration”

ADAM GROSSHANS, AIA

Architect, Gram Design
“Navigating a Volume: The Seattle Public Library”

DONALD JANELLE

Researcher Emeritus, Department of Geography
“UCSB Spatial Archives @ e-Scholarship”

KEVIN MWENDA

PhD Candidate, Department of Geography
“How High Can Mosquitoes Get?”

SONG GAO

PhD Candidate, Geography and GIS HelpDesk,
Center for Spatial Studies
“Earth's Biggest Seasonal Human Migration on a Map”

JORDAN HASTINGS

Research Associate, Center for Spatial Studies
“What's in a Gazetteer?”

SIJIE LOO

International Artist
“Space Traveling in Paintings”

PAUL WILSON

Retired, MapFrame and GE
“The Geography in Cancer”

JAMES CAESAR

Campus Emergency Manager
“Emergency Management and the use for Information and Maps”

KEITH CLARKE

Professor, Department of Geography
“How to Prove the Earth is Round”

SARA LAFIA

Masters Student, Department of Geography
“Degrees of Separation: Measuring Musicians and Places”

CELESTE PILEGARD

PhD Student, Department of Psychological and Brain Sciences
“Training Spatial Skills with Video Games”

JEREMY DOUGLASS

Assistant Professor, Department of English
“Page Spaces, Remixed: 500+ excursions through House of Leaves pages”

ALEXANDER BOONE

PhD Candidate, Department of Psychological and Brain Sciences
“Navigation and the Human Stress Response”

Lunch will be provided – RSVP to Crystal Bae
cbae@spatial.ucsb.edu