

SPATIAL LIGHTNING TALKS

Tuesday, February 19, 2018 | 12:00 – 1:15 PM

Interdisciplinary Humanities Center, McCune Conference Room, HSSB 6046

DR. JOHN LEE

Associate Professor, Department of History

“Race and Space on an American College Campus, 1886-1888”

THOMAS HERVEY

Graduate Student, Department of Geography

“Travel Spaces and their Stories”

SKONA BRITTAIN

SB Family School

“Space-Filling Curves”

MIKE JOHNSON

Graduate Student, Department of Geography

“An R-based Ecosystem for Earth System Data”

DR. GEORGE LEGRADY

Distinguished Professor, Media Arts and Technology Program

“3D Data Visualization Fundamentals from MAT 259 Course”

DR. KEITH CLARKE

Professor, Department of Geography

“Where is Nowhere?”

DAVID GORDON & ETHAN TURPIN

Local artists

“Model Mountain: Futures of Fire, Water and Climate”

DR. DAN MONTELLO

Professor, Department of Geography

“Fifty-Four Forty or Fight!”

DR. GREG HILLIS

Continuing Lecturer, Department of Religious Studies

“Mandalas: Buddhist Maps of Perfection”

AARON BAGNELL

Graduate Student, Department of Geography

“Fuzzy Oceans: Clustering Water Masses to Overcome Local Sampling Bias”

KEN DUNKLEY

Retired, UCD Food Science and Microbiology

“COOL Terroir: Place and the Character and Quality of Food and Beverages”

TOM EKMAN

Graduate student, Department of Education

“Exploring a Watershed with Mexican Youth”

Lunch will be provided.

Please RSVP to:

<https://goo.gl/forms/sigsZq5jxHuXzl1A3>

or email auppal@ucsb.edu